

DANCE[®]

magazine

Courtney Escoyne

May. 24, 2017 11:50AM EST

San Francisco is crawling with unexpected dance events over the next month. Here are seven on our radar.

Precarious

Hope Mohr Dance on site at Klockar's. Photo by Margo Moritz, Courtesy Hope Mohr Dance.

Inspired by the closing of the historic Klockar's Blacksmith shop, Hope Mohr Dance celebrates its 10th anniversary with this new work, which begins with a tour (created in collaboration with Shaping SF Walking Tours) exploring the labor history of the Mid-Market neighborhood and ends with a performance at CounterPulse. June 1–3. hopemohr.org.